The investor who'll make 35x returns from Oyo

RANU SARKAR
New Delhi, 24 July

Lightspeed Venture Partners, an early investor in Oyo Rooms, is likely to make around $1 billion on an investment of $23 million, multiplying its money 35 times.

This will be the best exit in India in terms of returns (Tiger Global's $3-billion exit from Flipkart was the biggest, which made a 2X return over its $1-billion investment). And, there's more in store — it will retain a 40 per cent stake valued at $400 million.

The reason for this spectacular exit is because Lightspeed invests very early, often when a start-up is raising seed-stage funding or incubates businesses, and works closely with the firm. It also invests in first-principles businesses that are trying to solve country-specific problems, and not on copycats. It's very selective and makes only two to four bets in a year. Being a small fund also helps.

Bejul Somaia, Partner, Lightspeed Venture Partners

The man behind the Oyo exit is Bejul Somaia, partner, Lightspeed Venture Partners. K Ganesh, an entrepreneur-turned-investor, says Somaia is extremely hands-on, and works more like a co-founder with the entrepreneur. "He is a partner of a company-builder than a board member who gets deeply involved in solving key problems facing a start-up. While doing so, he's able to see the big picture," says Ganesh, founder, TutorVista, a Lightspeed invests firm. Co-founder & CEO Ritesh Agarwal, who is increasing his stake to 30 per cent from 10 per cent in a $2-billion leveraged deal through a primary and secondary deals, has exclusively acknowledged Somaia's contribution. "One person who has been with us since we were two properties-old is Bejul Somaia, managing director of Lightspeed India, our first institutional shareholder. And he taught me how to hire right," Agarwal said in April 2018.

A few months after Oyo began, the results were not commensurate with the efforts. "Bejul suggested that I bring in someone who can complete the job for me. Across portfolio companies globally, Lightspeed had seen that the best way to complete the job was to bring someone in who could change the destiny of the company," Agarwal had said in an interview.

RAGHAVENDRA KAMATH
Mumbai, 24 July

Singapore-based investor CapitalLand is looking into entering residential and retail real estate in this country, a senior executive said.

It had recently acquired the business units of Temasek Holdings-owned Ascendas Singapore.

"We have good business in infotech and logistics centres. We are exploring whether we can put together a plan to enter areas such as residential and retail, and build a team," said Sanjeev Dasgupta, chief executive of Ascendas India Trust, listed on the Singapore Stock Exchange (SGX). Dasgupta said they could tap expertise from Singapore in this regard. CapitalLand used to have stakes in the malls developed by Prestige Estates — the latter bought these back in January last year, for $342 crore.

Dasgupta also said

Ascendas was looking to almost double its commercial property portfolio in the next four years. It has 13.3 million sq ft of commercial assets, including seven information technology (IT) parks and six warehouses. "We have 6.6 mn sq ft of development potential in Hyderabad, Bengaluru and Chennai. Another seven mn sq ft is already signed up and under construction," he said. The seven million sq ft is part of a forward purchase agreement, where it enters into an agreement with developers. Once the assets are built, it acquires these. Recently, it entered into one such deal with a subsidiary of a developer called Arshiya to invest in a warehouse at Panvel in Navi Mumbai.

The company is also getting into co-working spaces. It has set up such a centre at its IT park in Bengaluru. "Once it takes off, we will look at opening in other IT parks of Ascendas," said Dasgupta. Ascendas would not float a real estate investment trust (REIT) in this country, he added. "We have a REIT listed on the SGX and it is trading at good levels. Cost of financing is critical in a REIT and due to the NBFC (non-bank financial corporation) crisis here, liquidity has become tight. In Singapore, we do not have to deal with such issues."
